Peter, Three American service members were just killed and more than two dozen were injured in a deadly attack carried out against the United States by Iranian-backed proxies. This is just the latest Iran-backed act of aggression against the U.S. and its allies. In the months since Hamas' October 7th vile terrorist attack against Israel - also backed and supported by Iran -Iran-backed militias have attacked U.S. troops over 150 times.Iran and its proxies have been escalating their attacks against U.S. targets. We must take the gloves off and give these proxies a full taste of their own medicine.

Peter, Three American service members were just killed and more than two dozen were injured in a deadly attack carried out against the United States by Iranian-backed proxies. This is just the latest Iran-backed act of aggression against the U.S. and its allies. In the months since Hamas' October 7th vile terrorist attack against Israel - also backed and supported by Iran -Iran-backed militias have attacked U.S. troops over 150 times.Iran and its proxies have been escalating their attacks against U.S. targets. We must take the gloves off and give these proxies a full taste of their own medicine.

I have called on President Biden to consider widening the field of targets and increasing the scope of our response. Any government or terrorist group that takes the lives of Americans must pay a steep price for doing so. That means we must also strike at the heart of the funding for these proxies - Iran's illicit oil trade. My legislation, the SHIP Act, would do exactly that, directly targeting and reducing Iran's ability to wage a shadow war in the Middle East, and beyond. Senator Schumer must bring this House-passed bill to a vote in the Senate as soon as possible and get it over to President Biden's desk. Do you believe we must do more to hold Iran and its proxies accountable? Let me know by responding to my survey below:

Do you believe the United States needs to take stronger action against Iran and its proxies?
