Date: Wed, 22 Feb 2023 09:39:11 -0500 Representative Lori Trahan (<https://trahan.house.gov>) Friend, I am writing to you today with a heavy heart. Last week marked five years since 17 lives were taken too soon at Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland. And in this same week we marked this grim anniversary, a horrific school shooting at Michigan State University took the lives of three more students. There were also mass shootings this week in El Paso, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Patterson, and many more cities and towns across our nation. Many of these didn't make national headlines because of the frequency at which our country experiences these atrocities. In fact, there have been 80 mass shootings this year alone in our nation. That's 80 mass shootings in 53 days. I believe it is time for Congress to come together and enact commonsense gun safety legislation. That's why I am asking you to take a moment today to answer a simple question... Survey Question: DO YOU SUPPORT COMMONSENSE GUN SAFETY LEGISLATION? Survey Responses: 1. YES(<https://trahan.house.gov/Forms/Form/QuickSurvey.aspx?email=jd@fireside21.com&sid=74&fid=12>). 2. NO(<https://trahan.house.gov/Forms/Form/QuickSurvey.aspx?email=jd@fireside21.com&sid=74&fid=16>) Sincereley,
