past week me and my office spent many hours dedicated to supporting communities both at home and abroad. I was honored to be in Israel to celebrate the 75th anniversary of one of our strongest and closest allies in the world.
As a practicing Catholic, it was a moving experience to visit the Holy Land in Jerusalem and pray among the masses. Visiting the Western Wall was especially poignant, where I offered a prayer on behalf of our two nations. The alliance between the United States and Israel is special, and we must continue to work closely together in order to forge peace and stability in the Middle East. May 6, 2023 Peter, This past week me and my office spent many hours dedicated to supporting communities both at home and abroad. I was honored to be in Israel to celebrate the 75th anniversary of one of our strongest and closest allies in the world. As a practicing Catholic, it was a moving experience to visit the Holy Land in Jerusalem and pray among the masses. Visiting the Western Wall was especially poignant, where I offered a prayer on behalf of our two nations. The alliance between the United States and Israel is special, and we must continue to work closely together in order to forge peace and stability in the Middle East. I was proud to join a bipartisan group of lawmakers on a delegation trip to Israel. Throughout the week, my district staff attended events all across New York's 17th Congressional District. From the Martin Luther King Jr. Center's Annual Gala in New City, to Tender Steps of New York's Annual Gala in Nyack, to the Spring Market and Car Show in Yorktown, and more! We were happy to provide information about the services our office can provide, recognize deserving individuals from the district with official Congressional certificates and proclamations, and meet with constituents from all corners of the district.
Rep. Lawler's team has been active across the district, supporting organizations and providing critical constituent services to seniors, veterans, and more! I also introduced an important piece of bipartisan legislation with Congressman Josh Gottheimer (NJ-5) this week to crack down on the antisemitic Boycott, Divest, Sanction movement that has sprung up in opposition to the existence of the state of Israel. H.R. 3016 would help prevent U.S. companies and persons from participating in boycotts of U.S. allies by international governmental organizations, a critical step in stopping efforts by bad actors to enact BDS campaigns. You can read more about this effort by clicking the link here. Rep. Lawler continues to work across party lines to introduce important legislation. Another crucial piece of legislation we introduced this week was the bipartisan New York-New Jersey Watershed Protection Act, a measure that restores and protects the vital water resources of the Hudson, Mohawk, and Raritan Rivers and their tributaries. Clean water is such a critical component of healthy lives, and I'm proud to continue to work with my colleagues on both sides of the aisle towards providing the cleanest water we can for our constituents. Clean water is an essential aspect of living in the Hudson Valley, and Rep. Lawler is fighting hard to preserve the Hudson River and other waterways. I'm also proud to announce that our office has introduced or cosponsored 124 pieces of legislation, averaging more than one piece of legislation a day since I first took office on January 3rd. My team has been hard at work identifying additional bills that will make it easier for Hudson Valley families to live, work, and raise a family in the 17th District, and we won't stop working hard on your behalf in Washington D.C. On that note, our office is aware of the almost 400 illegal immigrants being bussed into Orangeburg by New York City Mayor Eric Adams. I have spoken with the Mayor, the Governor's Office, and the Biden Administration to let them know this will not be tolerated. Rockland County is not a sanctuary county, and New York City should not be forcing costs onto surrounding municipalities for its position on being a sanctuary city. The fact that Mayor Adams thinks he can send 400 single, adult males into Rockland County without proper vetting, within less than a mile of both a high school and a university, is totally unacceptable. As a member of the Border Caucus, I am already coordinating with my colleagues on a border security bill we will be voting on in the coming weeks to do all we can to prevent this ongoing humanitarian disaster from spilling into Rockland, Putnam, Dutchess, and Westchester Counties. Rep. Lawler is pushing back hard against Mayor Eric Adams' plans to ship single, adult male illegal immigrants to Rockland County. It is an honor to serve as your Representative in Congress. If you have any questions about anything we can do for you or your family, please don't hesitate to contact my office at 845-201-2060 or reach out through my website at lawler.house.gov.
