United States Congress Joint Economic Committee, the average household in California is paying $225 more per month to afford the same standard of living that they had in June 2023 due to inflation.

Working families cannot afford these high prices, which is why I am committed to stopping the reckless government spending that is fueling inflation. I voted for the largest deficit reduction in history. I voted to balance the budget, and I introduced legislation to identify and eliminate waste and fraud in the federal government's spending. We must preserve the American dream for future generations.
