online portal, pointing out many of its inadequacies. Wyoming's local, county, state, and federal officials - myself included - have also been united in opposing the RMP, and the choice of Alternative B in particular, while also asking for the public comment period to be extended. After this overwhelming groundswell of opposition, the BLM agreed to extend the comment period until January 17, 2024. That is not enough, however: the BLM must go back to the drawing board, and the more comments that are submitted, the greater the pressure.</td></tr></tbody></table><table

I also filed an amendment to the Department of the Interior's appropriations bill that would prevent any taxpayer dollars from being used to finalize and implement this disastrous RMP. This amendment was adopted without opposition and incorporated into the final bill which passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 213-203.
