Congressman Rob Wittman WEEKLY POLL: Do you want your money going to abortions abroad? A lot of people say they would not be where they are today without their parents - for me that is the absolute truth. When I was 11 months old, my mom and dad adopted me. My birth mother's decision to choose life gave me more opportunities than she felt she could provide. My parents' decision to adopt instilled a passion in me to protect the most vulnerable among us. But a recent Executive Order by President Biden overturned the "Mexico City Policy" and works directly against protecting innocent lives. The Mexico City Policy, first enacted by President Ronald Reagan, requires foreign non-governmental organizations (NGOs) to not "perform or actively promote abortion as a method of family planning" as a condition of receiving related funding from the US government. I believe it is fundamentally wrong to send taxpayer dollars overseas to fund abortion, but I want to hear what you think. Should US taxpayers be required to fund abortions abroad? [ ] No, taxpayer money should not be spent on something as controversial as abortion. [ ] No, not only is President Biden wrong, but we should reduce or eliminate foreign aid in general. [ ] Yes, sending US taxpayer dollars abroad to help fund abortions is an appropriate use of taxpayer money. [ ] Other Comments Make sure you check back next week for our weekly poll.
