the 118th Congress, I voted in support of the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

This important legislation requires immediate medical care to an infant that is born alive after a failed abortion.

210 House Democrats voted against this bill that provides medical care to a baby born alive.

Yes, you heard that right – voted against this bill that provides medical care to a newborn baby.

Life is a fundamental human right, and I will continue fighting to ensure that abortion survivors receive the same standard of medical care that is provided to any other newborn. This should not be controversial legislation, and the Senate must work together to pass this bill and protect life.

Sincerely,

Tom

Tiffany

Member of Congress
