TITLE Hi Evan, I spent the better part of today visiting lowans throughout our community, including in Montgomery County. While in Stanton, I spent time talking with veterans at the VFW. As an Air Force guy myself, one of my top priorities is ensuring our veterans receive the support and gratitude they've earned. While at the VFW, we discussed my fight to get better access to telehealth services, improve communication between veterans and the VA, and ensure veterans are getting their benefits! [Image removed by sender. Image] Hearing firsthand from lowans is one of my favorite parts of serving as your Congressman. I also spent time today in: * Cass County, where I learned about how Congress can support apprenticeships and good paying jobs at Berg Electric in Atlantic. * Taylor County, where I met with Keane Thummel Trucking in New Market to discuss necessary improvements to critical infrastructure and how to expand the trucking workforce. * Adams County, where I stopped by Fire and Salt Co. in Corning to discuss how we can cut red tape to help them sell Iowa raised red meat. * Page County, where I helped out around Sonrisers Popcorn in Clarinda amid the holiday hustle and bustle to see firsthand the challenges facing Iowa's small businesses this time of year.
