2023 Peter, I'm honored to represent a community of heroes where one out of every two households has a veteran, service member, law enforcement officer, or first responder living in the household. Two weeks ago, our nation and community honored those who have worn our nation's uniform when we observed Veterans Day. Our veterans deserve more than one day of recognition, however.
They have given so much to our country during their service and after it.
We cannot thank them enough. That's why this year, my office is going to be recognizing a number of veterans from across the 17th Congressional District as our Veterans of the Year. I hope you'll help us recognize these Hudson Valley heroes by nominating a veteran to be recognized by our office.
