A banner for Rep. Ashley Hinson, featuring her name and title "Rep. Ashley Hinson" in a serif font, with a background image of a field and trees.

Friend,
Representing Cedar Rapids and Linn County is an honor. I'm raising my family in Linn County, and I am proud of the strong community we have built, the challenges we've overcome, and the bright days ahead! I spent time this week meeting with some of the folks who are making an impact in our community.

I met with the dedicated team at YPN and Eastern Iowa Diaper Bank to learn more about their efforts to provide diapers, clothing, and other necessities to families in need. Diapers for one child can cost $1,000 a year or more and some parents are spending 14% of their paychecks on diapers alone. Together, we can make a difference for low-income families who need our support with their babies!

Next, I participated in a security demonstration with Iowa veteran Sergeant Trent Dirks, his service dog Tracer, and TSA officials at the Eastern Iowa Airport. Earlier this year, Sgt. Dirks told me about difficulties veterans and their service dogs face when traveling that can be stressful for the dogs and potentially traumatic for veterans. After raising this issue to TSA Administrator David Pekoske, he committed to working with me to ease this process for our veterans. The security demonstration was productive, and we'll keep working to improve air travel for veterans and others with disabilities.
