Trey Hollingsworth" <trey@mail.house.gov> To: Carter.Moelk@mail.house.gov Subject: Poll: Noncitizens Voting in Federal Elections Date: Wed, 15 Dec 2021 15:11:28 -0500 Dear Hoosiers, The Constitution designates election authority and protocols to the States; however, U.S. election regulations are subject to change by Congress. In 1996, Congress passed the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act, which established that it is unlawful for a noncitizen to vote in federal elections. While it remains illegal for noncitizens, such as visa holders or green card holders, to vote in federal elections, several municipalities across the United States have allowed noncitizens to vote in local elections in recent years. Most recently, New York City passed a measure allowing about 800,000 noncitizens to vote in local elections. Those who support noncitizens voting note that noncitizens pay taxes that support government programs, so they deserve to be represented in local and state elections. Opponents of noncitizens voting believe that noncitizens should attain citizenship, and accept all responsibility that comes with that title, before attaining the right to vote.
