Peter, The House will be voting this week on H.R. 1 - the Lower Energy Costs Act. This legislation aims to restore our nation's energy independence by increasing production and export of domestic energy and reducing the regulatory burdens that stifle American energy. We are all feeling the pain of higher energy prices - whether at the pump, in home heating costs this winter, or in our electric bills. In order to tackle the affordability crisis felt by so many here in the Hudson Valley and across America, there's no question we need to get energy costs under control. By getting us back on the path to energy independence, the Lower Energy Costs Act will go a long way to getting families the relief they need on these high prices. I have long advocated for an all-of-the-above energy agenda. As my colleagues and I continue to discuss America's energy needs, I want to hear from you on what you care most about when it comes to unleashing American energy. Please take a moment to fill out the below survey! Monday, March 27, 2023 Peter, The House
