National Police Week

 src="https://iqconnect.house.gov/iqextranet/Customers/WI01BS/2.png" alt="Image"/>

It's National Police Week. Established by a joint resolution of Congress in 1962, National Police Week pays recognition to those law enforcement officers who lost their lives in the line of duty.

 src="https://iqconnect.house.gov/iqextranet/Customers/WI01BS/Milwaukee_Police_Association.png" alt="Image"/>

This week, I had the opportunity to welcome the Milwaukee Police Association to our nation's Capitol. I'm grateful for our law enforcement officers who put their lives on the line every day to protect our community. I invite you to take a moment this weekend to thank a police officer and remember the law enforcement officers who lost their lives in the line of duty.

Making Sure American Elections are for American Citizens

The U.S. Constitution protects the right of citizens of the United States to vote in our elections. In fact, federal law makes it a felony for noncitizens to vote in federal elections. Most, but not all states outlaw noncitizen voting in their elections. American elections are for American citizens. I'm working to keep it that way.

Every American deserves to have confidence in their elections. This week, I chaired the Committee on House Administration hearing on noncitizen voting and preventing foreign interference in our elections.

introduced legislation to close loopholes that allow foreign nationals to fund elections operations.
