I'm checking in to update you on the work I'm doing on behalf of North Carolina's 13th District. Town Hall I'm excited to invite you to my sixth Town Hall coming up on Sunday, May 21st at 2:00pm in Raleigh. You can RSVP below and you'll receive an email with further information. RSVP to the Town Hall The town hall will focus on what Congress can do to help lower the high cost of housing, groceries, child care, health care, and more. I hope to see you there! This month, I released a report about what working families are dealing with as they try to keep up with the rising cost of living in our state. I'm committed to finding solutions, listening to your stories, and getting to work in Congress. If you didn't get a chance to check out the report, please take a look and leave your feedback below. Read the Report Week in Review During National Police Week, we take time to celebrate and reflect on the service, sacrifice, and dedication of the men and women in uniform who keep our community safe. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to all the law enforcement officers out there who serve and protect us. You can watch my remarks below. Today, I met with Wake County Sheriff Willie Rowe to discuss how nearly $900,000 in community project funding that I requested for new equipment would reduce the number of traffic-related fatalities and improve public safety in Wake County. Thanks to the Wake County Sheriff's Department for taking me on a ride-along and a tour of the Wake County Detention Center. On Monday, I attended the Independent Community Bankers of America's summit to discuss the ACRE Act. I'm proud to lead this bipartisan legislation with Congressman Feenstra to help lower mortgage costs and enable farmers to have greater access to credit through community banks. On Tuesday, I spoke on the House floor about the urgent need for action at our southern border. I introduced bipartisan legislation to extend Title 42 immigration restrictions, giving more time to strengthen our border security and enact meaningful, long-term immigration reform. You can watch my remarks below. I enjoyed the MomsRising Mother's Day Picnic with my fellow Dads Caucus members. I'll support mothers and working families every day of the year. Recently, I joined North Carolina realtors at Nationals Park for the REALTORS® National Block Party.
