Fri, 27 Jan 2023 16:15:08 +0000 It's official! Happy New Year! I'm Congressman Jared Moskowitz. It's my honor to be your Member of Congress for Broward and Palm Beach Counties. It's a humbling experience. I've spent the last 15 years as a public official working in our communities. When I was in law school, I served on the Parkland City Commission where I put forward solutions to improve our roads, schools, and way of life and fostering our community. In the Florida Legislature, I worked across party lines to deliver results and championed the bipartisan passage of Florida's most substantive gun violence prevention legislation after the shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas. In 2019, I was appointed to serve as the Director for Florida's Division of Emergency Management, where I oversaw the state's COVID-19 response. What you missed on C-SPAN... In my first few weeks in Congress, I've had an amazing behind-the-scenes perspective of Washington, which I'm grateful my kids got to see...even if I was sworn in at 1:30am. From an historically long vote for Speaker to bumping into some long-time friends and being appointed to the House Committee on Oversight and Accountability as well as the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, it's been an eventful start to say the least. I believe that one way for representatives to build trust with their constituents is to give them insight into what goes on in DC. So I'd like to share with you a few of my favorite moments so far: Over the next two years, I will be focused on initiatives to create jobs, enact gun violence prevention legislation, protect our democracy, and strengthen support for Israel. It is my honor to serve as your member of Congress for Florida's 23rd district. If my office can help you in any way please contact us. As we kick off the 118th Congress, I want to hear from you about your priorities. What are the most pressing issues on your mind?
