Representing District 13 for the past 172 days has been an immense honor. As an immigrant, scientist, and entrepreneur, the opportunity to advocate for the nation I love, despite growing up in rural India, is a testament to the pursuit of the American dream. My greatest accomplishment, however, is serving you and your family in Congress.

I would appreciate your thoughts on how I can better represent your interests in Washington.

Dobbs vs. Jackson Women's Health Organization decision. As someone who firmly believes that reproductive rights are human rights, I am heartened by the progress made in securing reproductive and abortion rights in the state of Michigan. Michigan has implemented proactive measures to safeguard reproductive rights by enacting state laws that protect the right to choose and ensure access to safe and legal abortion services. However, residents in other states don't have this luxury. Individuals seeking services should not have to travel across state lines to access reproductive care.

I had the opportunity to visit Public Service Credit Union and West Side Beer Distributing, both a family-owned company deeply embedded in the Downriver community. Small businesses like these are crucial of our local economy, contributing significantly to the job market. That is why I have introduced the Small Business Workforce Pipeline Act to support apprenticeships. I have also co-sponsored the Investing in Main Street Act in order to boost small business investments. Recognizing their importance, I am dedicated to advocating for their success in Congress.

Meeting with International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers

I was honored to attend the International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers Congressional Reception, a forum for workers to voice their concerns, share their experiences, and seek support from lawmakers. The event showcased the significance of collective action and highlighted the importance of unity among workers. Hardworking individuals should be able to unite to obtain the full reward of their labor. I am fighting to get Medicare for all so that our workers can have access to comprehensive healthcare, which is a crucial component of the fair and just society we aim to achieve.
