 June 15, 2023  Dear Marjorie,

 You should never have to wonder whether your constitutional rights are at risk in this country. Unfortunately, the Second Amendment has recently been subjected to onerous regulations by officials at the ATF.  The recent rule banning stabilizing braces by the ATF subjects millions of law-abiding gun owners to felony charges over a piece of plastic. This new ruling affects law-abiding gun owners, but particularly impacts service-disabled veterans who use pistol braces while exercising their Second Amendment rights. To those veterans, active-duty servicemen, national guardsmen, and reservists, and your families, who have given so much to defend our country, I will not sit idly by while the Federal Government comes after your Second Amendment rights. Bureaucrats at the ATF must not be allowed to effectively rewrite a law that was never intended to apply to firearm accessories. I proudly supported Rep. Andrew Clyde's (R-GA) legislation to overturn this unconstitutional ruling. Together with my Republican colleagues, we successfully pushed for a vote on the House floor and passed the Clyde resolution on June 13th in an effort to stop this injustice.  Additionally, I introduced legislation to permanently address this issue. The Protecting Individual Sovereignty Through Our Laws Act, or PISTOL Act, would prevent the ATF from considering pistols with brace attachments to be short-barreled rifles under the National Firearms Act (NFA), and would define in statute what a pistol is for the purpose of being exempt from the NFA. The right to keep and bear arms should never be subject to arbitrary regulations. It is my duty as your elected representative to
