background-color: #ffffff;"> Dear Friend,  This week, Congress is voting on the Protecting Americans from Foreign Adversary Controlled Applications Act, which would ban apps controlled by a foreign adversary, like China, Russia, and North Korea, from being sold in the U.S.

comes to the floor as TikTok is owned by ByteDance, a company with ties to the Chinese Communist Party (CCP).  TikTok has more than 150 million American users, and one-third of Americans ages 18-29 get news of TikTok. The app's CCP ties bring concerns that the CCP can access Americans' data and personal information and control what users see on their feeds. 
If the CCP no longer controls TikTok, TikTok can operate in the United States.  I'm voting on this bill and want to hear from you.
