medical emergency, the last thing your family should be focused on is the fear of receiving an expensive, unexpected medical bill from an out-of-network provider.  Unfortunately, this happens far too often for American families who unexpectedly or unknowingly receive care from a provider who is not in their insurance network.  <span style="font-size:

December 2020 and even prouder to see it go into effect last month.  The law bans surprise billing in private insurance for emergency care and requires that uninsured and self-pay patients receive key information about health care costs. According to <a
