Thanks to the ACA:

■ Over 40 million more people have health coverage.
■ Young people can stay on their family's health insurance plan until age 26.
■ Americans with pre-existing conditions are protected from being charged more or denied coverage altogether.

Instead of trying to repeal and replace the ACA, Congressional Democrats and President Biden will continue building on the success and progress we have made under the law.

 "Hello, I'm Congressman Bobby Scott. This week marks the 14th anniversary of President Obama signing the Affordable Care Act, or ACA, into law. Thanks to the ACA, over 40 million Americans have now gained health coverage, and no one can be denied coverage for having a pre-existing medical condition. The uninsured rate in the United States is now at an all-time low. Young people can stay on their family's health insurance plan until they are 26 years old. People have access to essential health benefits, including preventive and rehabilitative care, prescription drugs, wellness visits, contraceptives, and mental health and substance use treatment, among many others.

"Earlier this year, it was announced that 21.3 million Americans have signed up for health coverage through Affordable Care Act marketplaces alone. That means 9 million more people have gained coverage under the law just since President Biden took office. That is not an accident. Instead of trying to repeal and replace the ACA, Congressional Democrats and President Biden have focused on strengthening and protecting the ACA by enacting the American Rescue Plan and the Inflation Reduction Act, both of which lowered health insurance premiums for working families. The Inflation Reduction Act also capped insulin at $35 a month for seniors and finally enabled Medicare to negotiate lower prescription drug prices for American families.

"On this anniversary of the Affordable Care Act, let's all take some time to appreciate the progress that has been made under the law for American families. And recommit ourselves to build on its successes as we go forward to improve access to health care and continue lowering the costs of prescription drugs. And remember, even though the open enrollment period is in the fall, you can always check your options for getting insured by going to www.HealthCare.gov. Thank you."
  Very truly yours,
