The bill expands eligibility for Health Savings Accounts (HSAs) and increases the current contribution limits on those HSAs. Specifically, the legislation would decouple HSAs from high-deductible health plans and double the current contribution limits on HSAs from $4,300 to $8,600 for individuals and $8,550 to $17,100 for families. This will allow families to plan for larger medical expenses like IVF and be able to grow their families.  By expanding HSA eligibility and increasing contribution limits for those HSAs, I am pursuing solutions that will help aspiring parents make their dreams reality.  The right to vote is a fundamental principle of the United States of America.  In recent years, we have seen increasing number of jurisdictions across the country allow noncitizens to vote in their elections. In our nation's capital, noncitizens are eligible to vote in municipal elections. For example, a noncitizen only has to reside in Washington, D.C. for 30 days in order to register to vote. In June, the House voted 262-143 to end this practice in D.C. Every illegal vote cancels out the legal vote of an eligible American voter. We cannot allow this to spread across the U.S.
