Congressional Update from Rep. Wiley Nickel Dear Neighbor, I'm checking in to update you on the work I'm doing on behalf of North Carolina's 13th District. Enews Sign Up I Visit My Website I View Online   Congressional Update from Rep. Wiley Nickel   Dear Neighbor, I'm checking in to update you on the work I'm doing on behalf of North Carolina's 13th District.   Week In Review   I started the week in North Carolina, and visited Holly Hill Hospital to discuss ways we can support our health care system and to kick off National Nurses Week!   I had the chance to meet with the North Carolina Nurses Association to learn more about how we can work to lower health care costs and increase access to care.   It was great to meet with these groups during National Nurses Week and celebrate all the tireless work that they do to support patients and people in North Carolina. I got to speak with ABC 11 to kick off Mental Health Awareness Month and to discuss ways we can address recent gun violence across the United States.   You can watch the segment HERE.   I spoke on the House floor to share the results of the economic impact report that I released earlier this month. Right now, working families need help keeping up with the rising cost of goods and services. Working families deserve to know that their leaders are willing to roll up their sleeves and find bipartisan solutions that will make a real difference. I'm working to do just that.   I spoke at a Congressional Dad's Caucus event on the state of paid family and medical leave across the United States.   I hosted my second telephone town hall, and gave an update on the work I've been doing over the past few months. If you were not able to join, you can listen in to the conversation HERE.   Delivering for North Carolina   This week, I introduced two common sense, bipartisan bills. I introduced the ACRE Act with my Republican colleague Rep. Feenstra, which would help to lower mortgage costs for farmers and rural communities. You can read more about this bill HERE. I also introduced bipartisan legislation to help secure the southern border and give more time to enact meaningful, long-term reforms to our overburdened immigration system. I'm grateful to Senator Tillis and Senator Sinema for championing this effort in the Senate, and look forward to working with my House colleagues to get this across the finish line. You can read more about this bill HERE.   Constituent Services   As your representative, hearing about the issues that are important to you helps shape my priorities.
